

ILLUSTRATION- VISUAL NARRATIVES AND COLOUR

June 03-07, 2024 AHMEDABAD CAMPUS

Anchor Faculty: Amit Sinha

LIMITED SEATS AVAILABLE!

13 years and above
Minimum seats: 15
Maximum seats: 20

WHAT IS THIS WORKSHOP ?

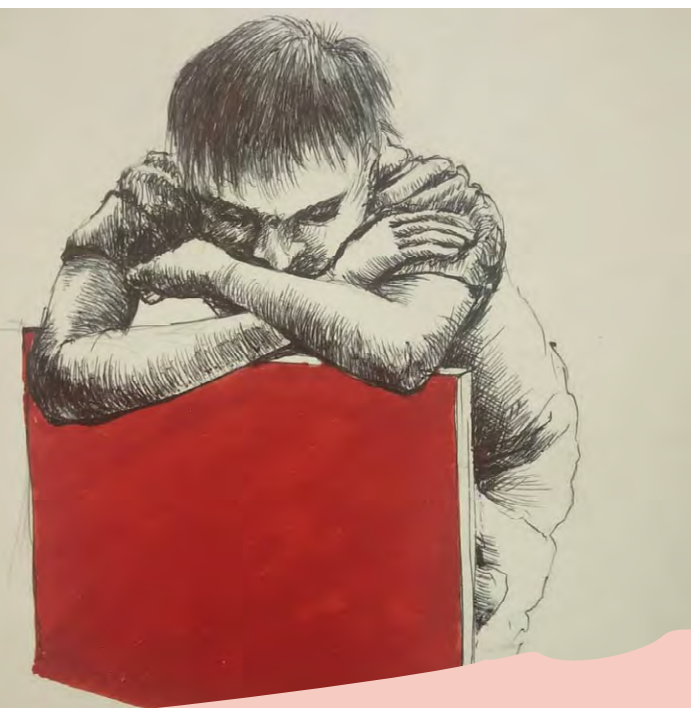

Will help to develop abilities - conceptual, technical, professional approaches, and efficiency in using colour to enhance visual communication - which are important aspects of an illustrated work. The workshop is planned with the belief that everyone with a passion can develop strength in illustration with their touch to it. Skills are vital but overall, an understanding of need, skill, communication/storytelling, and exposure to application is the key to developing the experimental skill in an illustrated work.

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

Approaches to illustration, Skill based experiments through different medium, capturing and communicating mood of narrative through colour usage, methods to produce a finished illustrated work.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Each and every one who likes to illustrate as a hobby or aspires to choose a career in areas that utilise illustration as a tool.

ANCHOR FACULTY

Amit Sinha is an alumnus of NID Ahmedabad. He is a design educator at NID Gandhinagar Campus. He has cumulative work experience of over 24 years combining Industry practice and education.
