What is this Workshop about?

Bamboo is one of the most sustainable and versatile natural resources, traditionally used in products ranging from baskets to buildings. Its long, pliable fibers make it ideal for weaving into mats and various forms. This workshop introduces participants to traditional bamboo weaving techniques and explores their applications in contemporary lifestyle products. Through hands-on sessions, participants will learn about different weaving patterns, bamboo processing, and finishing methods. They will also experiment with combining bamboo mats with other bamboo forms and materials to create functional, modern designs. Rooted in age-old traditions, the workshop offers a creative platform to reimagine bamboo for today's world while learning directly from its rich heritage.

What will you learn?

1. Learning about bamboo and its uses
2. Various working methods of bamboo
3. Splitting and weaving practices
4. Ideation of new products
5. Experiments and prototyping
6. Discussions and presentations

Who should attend?

Students, professionals, Artisans, Entrepreneurs
Anyone who is enthusiastic about knowing bamboo and its applications

SUMMER WORKSHOP 2025

Susanth C S
ANCHOR FACULTY

Dr. Susanth C. S. is a seasoned designer and educator with over 25 years of experience in furniture design and bamboo applications. A graduate of NID Ahmedabad (1998), he began his career with NID's Consultancy Services and later served as faculty at the Ahmedabad and Bengaluru campuses. In 2007, he established the Design for Retail Experience master's program at NID Bengaluru. Dr. Susanth has worked extensively on furniture, interiors, and bamboo-based projects, collaborating with craft clusters across India. A key focus of his work has been the promotion and innovation of bamboo through design, workshops, exhibitions, and research. Since 2010, he has headed NID's Centre for Bamboo Initiatives. In 2024, he completed his PhD on the evaluation and standardization of joinery systems in solid bamboo furniture. Over the years, he has held multiple administrative roles and represented NID at various national and international seminars and conferences.
